

ABOUT THIS SITE /Navigation

Welcome !!

This site has been constructed to memorialize and honor past generations of the Kasperowicz families. Additionally it is intended to make our current generation look back and then forward, with joy! Hopefully, it can inspire them to be thankful for what they have, living a purposeful life, with humility and extending help to those less fortunate. We ALL have been blessed. Amazingly, our relatives past and present, in Europe as well as the United States have achieved happiness with common values emphasizing Faith, Family, Friends and work.

The narratives presented are an attempt to bring an awareness of our family history, culture and changing circumstances, living in the middle of nowhere. This however, did not insulate them from geopolitical upheavals. For centuries battles were fought on their lands. They lived in an area which was a battlefield of opposing major European military forces causing death and destruction.

More recently, in the early 1800s Napoleon's army fought and marched through our ancestral land which includes the village of Onoszeki. That's where our ancestor Barbara Kasperowicz, a widow lived with her five children.

Our ancestors were primarily subsistence farmers, initially living through a long period of serfdom akin to slavery. They were granted freedom decades before this abomination was abolished in modern Poland. In addition to farming our relatives sought out opportunities and became skilled craftsmen, clergy, teachers and healers. Some immigrated to America seeking the freedom and opportunity it offered.
